We are excited to welcome and get together in a grand gathering of Nepalese community in North America - the 27th Convention of ANA 2009.

This is a warm invitation to you from Motherland Nepal to participate in the Convention, which is going to take place here in the San Francisco Bay Area. We are proud and pleased to be a part of this grand festival/gathering of Nepalese. We have responsibility to make this convention a great success. Nepalese in the Bay Area feel proud to host this grand convention. Please come with your family, enjoy the beautiful weather and one of the most beautiful cities - San Francisco.

Enjoy various interesting programs and meetings with your friends from all over the USA and Canada, in one place.
